

Employment Agency Opens Office Here

A new employment agency, Service Associates agency, has opened in Torrance at 1623 Cravens avenue.

Local Manager Jim Carter said that this constitutes the third office of the agency, the other two located in Long Beach and Los Angeles.

"We feel that with the added advantage of having employer contacts and contacts with individuals seeking work in all three areas, we can be invaluable to local employers as well as to individuals looking for a position," he said.

He also indicated that his agency advertises applicants by making background briefs which are sent to firms who might be potential employers.

The office will be open five days a week until September 15. After that it will also remain open Friday evenings and Saturday until 12 noon to consult with individuals who are working but who are interested in changing jobs.

In the local office with Carter is Ross Frampton, counselor; Miss Marlon Schurman, receptionist; and Jack Randall, employer public relations.

The Long Beach office is managed by Les Welling. Welling and Carter have been in the employment agency business 2 1/2 years.

Father And Son Dinner At McMaster

A father and son pot luck awards dinner will be held at McMaster park. All boys who have participated in activities at the park are invited to attend with their fathers.

Trophies and awards will be given to the McMaster league champions. All boys are requested to bring either a hot dish or a salad.

Over 250 boys participated in the summer 10" softball program. A football program now is under way at the park.

Following the dinner, movies will be shown.

AN INDISCREET man is more hurtful than an ill-natured one; for the latter will only attack his own enemies, and cease he wishes ill to; the other injures indifferently both friends and foes.—Addison
